

The Joey Seymour

Benefit OCTOBER 4TH

LOCATION: TRADITIONAL HOME HEALTH AND HOSPICE

113 W DRINKER ST IN DUNMORE (570) 207-9286
FROM 1-5 PM

Joey Seymour, starting his sophomore year at Penn State University, was involved in a serious car accident while driving back to State College on August 21st. Joey sustained critical injuries and remains hospitalized at Geisinger Hospital in Danville.

His medical team anticipates a long hospitalization with extensive rehabilitation to follow.

Joey is the son of Art and Donna Seymour. Donna is a nurse at Traditional Home Health and Hospice.

Traditional Home Health and Hospice is hosting a benefit to assist the Seymour family with anticipated medical expenses.

The event will include a basket raffle, 50/50, a variety of vendors, food, bake sale and fun for the kids.

Please come out and join the Traditional family as we help one of our own who has given back to her patient's in the community in a special way.
